FROM PASTOR JOEL

Dear Friends in Christ,

For me, like many of you, there's a lot to like about Zack Moser, our new director of youth ministries. Some of you have told me, for example, that you enjoy Zack's humor. So do I - though I must say that, after the Patriots' loss last Sunday to the Carolina Panthers, our staff meeting the following Monday morning with a swaggering Carolinian in the room was a little hard to take. Others have mentioned Zack's approachability. He is one of the most humble and accessible

Christians I know - a perfect combination of attributes when it comes to ministry with teens.

But this week I am writing to share something else that I appreciate about Zack: In the United Methodist Church he is a "rare bird" because he is a candidate for a fairly new - in our denomination - ordained office. Zack's vocational goal is to become an ordained Deacon and that, consequently, brings some new gifts to Sudbury UMC's life and mission. Before discussing those gifts, a little history might be helpful.

From the beginning of the Methodist movement, there have always been two ordained offices - three, if you count the episcopacy (which Wesleyan theology and polity have always held to be a consecration within the order of presbyters): Deacon, Elder, and Bishop. When John Wesley ordained Thomas Vasey and Richard Whatcoat in 1784 - at which time he also laid his hands on Thomas Coke for the office and work of what he called a "general superintendent" - he followed the same pattern that he was familiar with from his own ordination. On the first day of the process, Wesley invoked the Holy Spirit to authorize Whatcoat and Vasey as Deacons: that is, preachers of God's Word, edifiers of God's people, and servants of all. The next day, Wesley ordained them Presbyters or Elders, authorized not only for word and service but also for sacramental presidency and ordering the life of the church. Until 1996, all Methodist clergy were ordained Deacons before receiving Elders' orders, Annual Conference membership, and guaranteed appointment.

In 1996, however, the General Conference of the UMC decided to distinguish Deacons and Elders from each other by making both "permanent" orders. In other words, following the pattern and practice of many of our ecumenical partner churches, The United Methodist Church recognized the office of Deacon as more than a stepping stone to the pastoral office of Elder. For the last twenty years, ordination and service as a Deacon has been seen as a lifelong vocation with preaching and teaching God's Word as its first emphasis and serving the world in the image of Christ as its second.

While it is likely that Sudbury UMC has nurtured the vocations of several "transitional" Deacons - pre- 1996 associate pastors on their way to ordination as Elders - Zack Moser is the first candidate for ordination as a "permanent" Deacon that our congregation has welcomed to its ministerial team. Can you see the gifts this "first" mean for our church?

First, Sudbury UMC now has a new preacher-in-formation among us. Helping Zack to find and tune his voice as a preacher will be a priceless gift for our congregation as well as a serious responsibility. We will hear Zack preach in our pulpit for the first time this Sunday, October 8. His text will be Isaiah 5:1-7. Please come with open ears and open hearts, treasuring the gift of hearing Zack and dialoguing with him after worship.

Second, Sudbury UMC now has a maturing model of Christ-like service among us. As Zack leads our teens he will also challenge us all to follow Jesus "in lowly paths of service free," as a hymn we should all treasure deeply says (see UMH #430). Beyond giving money, Zack will urge us to put some "skin in the game," too. In other words, more than mere donating, serving like Jesus served is first and foremost a "contact sport."

See you in church!

Pastor Joel

LEARN

The Magnuson Moment

In Sunday School during the month of October, the children (age 3 through Grade 5) are learning about the life of David, the second king of Israel. The prophet Samuel went to Bethlehem to anoint one of Jesse's sons as king. While Samuel was considering the seven sons of Jesse to anoint as king, God admonished Samuel not to look on the outward appearance, for "...the Lord looks on the heart." (1 Samuel 16:7). David was not even among his brothers, he was out caring for his father's sheep.

Our Bible verse for the month of October, "the Lord looks on the heart," is an important life lesson. All too often our opinion of someone is formed in the first few moments of meeting him or her rather than waiting to learn about the person's character and who s/he is on the inside. Consider reviewing this verse with your children this month.

Prayer Pals. For those who have yet to meet their Grand-Friend, let's plan a meet and greet of the prayer pals on Sunday, October 15, during the coffee hour.

The key word for Week 5, Oct. 8-14:

Encouragement, "I have great confidence in you; I take great pride in you. I am greatly encouraged...my joy knows no bounds." 2 Corinthians 7:4

Magic Years. Be sure to sign up for next week's gathering on Thursday, October 12, in Davison Chapel. Following our lunch, we will hear a presentation by Henry Lucas from the Spellman Museum of Stamps and Postal History. Also, consider what apple recipe you might want to prepare and share with everyone for our "Apple Fest" dessert buffet!

Greetings from the SUMC Youth!

Thank you SUMC members and visitors who supported our own Aidan Prendergast's Eagle Scout project fundraising carwash on Sunday. Some gave donations to have their car washed by the Scouts, while others (like our esteemed Director of Youth Ministries, for example) gave donations to have their car left alone. In retrospect, he thinks he should've joined the former category, but he was happy to support the cause.

- UMCOR Hurricane Relief Kits: This Sunday night at youth group, we will assemble the UMCOR hygiene kits (given to people who were displaced by the recent storms) that we brought in supplies for last weekend. Some items are still needed, so if any youth or family missed last Sunday's meeting and would like to help fill in the needed items, check this week's parent email or contact Zack (zack@sudbury-umc.org).
- Chris Tomlin concert in Lowell: If you are going to the Chris Tomlin concert on Friday, October 20, please bring your payment to youth group this weekend or next (8th or 15th). The cost per ticket is $47. We purchased 16 of them, and a few still remain unclaimed, so any youth who would like to join us, let Zack know ASAP (zack@sudbury-umc.org).
- High School Bible Study (start date changed to this Sunday): Beginning on October 8, all high school youth are invited to join Zack on Sunday mornings after worship for a half-hour for a time of fellowship and to dive deeper into the scripture passage from that morning. Don't worry about missing coffee hour - we'll provide donuts.

Finally, if you are a parent of a 6th-12th grader and you are not receiving the weekly youth updates from Zack, please send him an email (again, zack@sudbury-umc.org) and ask to be added to the recipient list. These updates are filled with all the info you need about upcoming youth activities and events, and the masterfully entertaining prose with which these updates are written make them great reads anyway. Win-win, right? See you Sunday.

Keep the Faith.

Apocalyptic Devastation in Dominica

DAYS WITH NOT ENOUGH WATER OR FOOD, NO SHELTER, NO ELECTRICITY, NO CELL SERVICE

On September 19, 180 mile an hour winds brutalized Dominica. Our sisters and brothers there are dealing with the unprecedented destruction of their homeland. They are in desperate need. The island has no protectorate country sending aid.

Most recent communications confirm 33 dead, 27 missing, and 80% of the island still without power or water. While some relief supplies are getting through, destroyed roads and a shortage of vehicles is making relief efforts difficult.

We appreciate you putting aside understandable feelings of compassion fatigue to help. SUMC is conducting a fundraising effort ending October 15 which will be used for relief aid for the villages of Wesley and Marigot. To donate, please go to <http://sudbury-umc.org/give/>

Use the pull-down menu and select Dominica Hurricane Relief. Checks can be made out to Sudbury UMC with "Dominica Hurricane Relief" in the memo line and sent to the church at 251 Old Sudbury Road, Sudbury, MA 01776

Thank you, and please continue to hold our brothers and sisters in prayer.

Blessing of the Animals 2017

The Sudbury Clergy Association is delighted to invite you and your pets to the Third Annual Ecumenical Blessing of the Pets. Sudbury UMC, 251 Old Sudbury Road, is this year's host. A joyful prayer service and blessing will take place at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 15, on the portico at the main entrance of the church and is easily accessible from the parking lot.

Prayer will be shared and led by a number of local clergy. Fellowship and light refreshments will follow. Come and give thanks for God's beauty and creation in our pets.

A-Cappella Group Now Forming!

Are you a fan of a cappella? Some of you may be familiar with the lively tradition of informal singing that has been especially successful in the high school and university scene in the last decade. Well, the musicians of SUMC would like to attempt their own version of a cappella. Starting Wednesday, 18 October from 6:30 p.m. till 7:30 p.m. and for the next three Wednesdays (25 Oct, 1 Nov, 8 Nov) we will meet for an hour to learn a modest list of a cappella items with a sacred twist. A cappella groups typically work without printed music, so you do not need to read music to participate.

You also don't have to have a vocal degree from the conservatory to add your voice. We >do< have a keen interest in making a musical opportunity for SUMC members who have never joined in a SUMC music project. We know your time is precious, so let us combine your evening meal with music by including a "simple supper" after the manner of Advent and Lenten suppers. We will also arrange for child care, young parents, if you want to attend but are not quite sure what to do with small people. (Been there.)

Our only request is that you SIGN UP. It is extremely helpful to know who will attend so our planning can be good quality. Here's the link:
http://sudbury-umc.org/sumc_v1/music/a_cappella/

This will take you to a Google doc where you can tell us what works for you. Of course, you are also quite welcome to call or email me, Kevin and/or Rob .

Check your calendar, keep singing in the shower, and let Kevin or Rob know if this is a project for you! Don't be afraid to jump in... this might be just the mid-week spiritual break you need! kevin@sudbury-umc.org

Women's Fellowship Group

The fall meeting of the Women's Fellowship will be on Monday, October 30, at 7:00 p.m. in Hawes Hall. We will start with refreshments, followed by a slide presentation by Bob Cooke of his trip to Antarctica and the scientific research that is being done all around the ice cap. Men are welcome to attend this program.

Please mark your calendars for our December meeting on Monday, December 4, at the Hosmer House for the "Not so Silent Auction." More details later.

Book Discussion Lead by Health Ministries Commission

Join the Health Ministry Commission in Hawes Hall after worship on Sunday, October 8, to launch a book discussion series. The program will start with Being Mortal, by Atul Gawande. In Being Mortal, bestselling author Atul Gawande tackles the hardest challenge of his profession: how medicine can not only improve life but also the process of its ending. Other titles of interest for future reading will be on display. Stop by to find out more and sign up.

Sudbury UMC is a Nut Free Zone!

We will look ahead to the passages being preached during worship on:

- October 8 Isaiah 5:1-7

MetroWest Free Medical Program Seeking Volunteers

On Tuesdays, about 20 volunteers gather to provide healthcare services to people who don't have insurance. The program serves an average of 35 patients, using the sanctuary at Congregation Beth El as the clinic site.

Volunteers are needed to help put the medical supplies and equipment away in the shed behind Beth El. Specifically, people are needed to help move the screens, exam tables, buckets of medical supplies, as well as tables and chairs. With enough volunteers, this can be done in 30 minutes.

This is a great job for high school students looking to finish up their community service hours or anyone who wants to get an extra 30 minutes of exercise! When? Tuesdays, 9:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Questions? Contact Kim Prendergast at kim.prendergast@gmail.com.

Dear Friends,

This year Greenwood Memorial United Methodist Church will celebrate its 28th Annual Harvest Banquet. We are excited to celebrate 28 years of ministries and partnerships with our members and the Dorchester community. This is also our second year hosting the Harvest Banquet on Friday, October 27, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. at Florian Hall, 55 Hallet St. Dorchester, MA. 02122.

Greenwood Memorial United Methodist Church continues to be a beacon of hope in the Dorchester community. Our Church is 117 years old. The Harvest Banquet serves several purposes. One primary purpose is fundraising to support the ministries at Greenwood. We are currently also working on a Capital Campaign Program, entitled "Moving Forward" which we launched this year to also support the restoration of the church building.

Greenwood is a vital part of this Dorchester community hosting many community programs and meetings. Some of these programs are the Greenwood Shalom after School Program, Narcotics Anonymous, The Family Today Ministry as well as civic group meetings like the Greater Four Corners Action Coalition and the United Neighborhood Association. We also provide space for a much needed community food bank.

In recent years through advertising in our souvenir booklet, your agency/business has contributed to continuing the program life of Greenwood Memorial United Methodist Church. We invite you to continue to support this work by placing an ad in the 2017 Anniversary booklet. We really appreciate the patronage of our repeat friends and we look to welcome our potential new friends.

We are excited about the year ahead and the future of the restoration of the church and its continuous programs and services. We have an energetic and dynamic Pastor that has been with us for one year. We see changes as we continue to grow. Your advertising support helps to make the exciting work taking place at Greenwood and the Dorchester community possible. We hope you will take a moment to fill out our advertising form (see details on page 2) and also take time to attend our Harvest Banquet celebration.

We appreciate you and we look forward to your continued support of our Harvest Banquet.

Sincerely,

Anthony Whitworth
